

Exploring Values

Read through these lists of statements and try to come up with a word or a phrase that best describes the value.

There are no right or wrong answers, in fact, the more diverse perspectives we get, the better! We are exploring how different people have different perspectives, different values, and different priorities.

Value 1

I want to make a difference in the future
I want to be remembered for what I do
I want to inspire others in my life
I like discovering things
I think working for something you believe in is important
I want to have a career that I enjoy

We think the name for Value 1 should be:

Value 2

I think my personal life is more important than a career
Money doesn't determine whether a job is good or not
Education isn't everything
My social life comes before my career
I don't need a degree to become successful

We think the name for Value 2 should be:

Value 3

In a good career you make lots of money
Being ambitious means you have to be ruthless
Money determines whether a job is good or not
The economy will drive my decisions
A career matters more than a job
Success is what other people think of me
To be successful you have to be ambitious

We think the name for Value 3 should be:

Value 4

Family is important to me
My family influences my decisions in my life
Helping people makes me a good person

We think the name for Value 4 should be: